WHAT IS TRANSITIONAL HOUSING?

Chrysalis Transitional Housing provides secure, affordable, rent geared to income apartments for women and their children for up to one year. You will experience a safe, non-judgmental environment with support staff available and links to community support services. Studio, one, and two bedroom apartments are available. Apartments are furnished and there are free shared laundry facilities on site. Chrysalis Housing does not fall under the Residential Tenancy Act. We are a residential program and residents will be required to vacate their apartment if our housing program rules are not followed, or the safety of other residents has been put at risk.

Admission Application Process:

1. Complete the confidential admission application form – Step 1
If an apartment is due to become vacant around the time of your application, you will be contacted to complete a more detailed application – Step 2. If your contact information changes, please contact us to let us know. If when first applying there is an apartment available, you may not be required to do Step 1.
2. When the Step 2 – Full application is submitted you will be contacted for an interview. Applications then get presented to the Housing Committee. All stages of the application process are confidential. Consideration for transitional housing is dependant on available space, safety considerations, and the ability to live independently.
